NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.
New York, August 22.—In the stock market to-day there was much less excitement than yesterday, and a material reaction from the depression was brought about, chiefly by the Money ruled easier throughout the day than yesterday, but rates were carried in the forenoon loading trains. Thirty-three men took this train, but on learning that they were expected to take the switchmen's places but five of them refused to go to work without transportation, without pay.

CHIEFS ARTHUR AND POWDERLY.

CLEVELAND, OHIO, August 2.—Chief Arthur of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and Chief Powderly of the Brotherhood of Railway and Steamship Men, who were expected to reply be wished to make to Powderly, open letter addressed to him through the press. He instantly said that he had been pressed to give Mr. Powderly the information he sought. The letter, however, must be addressed to him officially, and he had paid any attention to the matter. He had not published this morning. The position of the engineers was well known, but Mr. Arthur would be glad to stipulate that Mr. Powderly addressed him a letter in an official way.

IRON STRIKE FOR HIGHER WAGES.

The Firemen and Engineers of Chicago's Stock-Yard Switching Association.

(By telegram to the Dispatch.)

CLEVELAND, August 2.—All of the firemen and engineers employed by the Union Stock-Yards Switching Association went on strike for higher wages this morning. At 10 o'clock, forty engines, each having two men, were lying idle at forty-seventh street yard.

yards are also idle. The switching or trans-shipment is the largest in the country, he asserted, and it does all the work of the pack- ing yards. The yards, consequently, must all work at the packing house as a stand-still. The tracks are filled with empty cars, and the cars are not de- signed for outside points. The reasons for the strike are as follows: The men demand 25 cents per hour. The firemen get 20 cents and the engineers 30 cents. The men also desire a Sunday regulation, which would mean the price paid at the shop- ing places would be 10 per cent less. F. Williams, secretary and treasurer of the Stock Yards Company. The men re- quirements could be considered, and struck once.

The Strike of Lynn's Strike
(By Telegram to the Dispatch.)

LYNN, Mass., August 22.—The Mirror-Press, which is the organ of the striking- ing members that should the men- ire to return in John Middleton's factory must do so at a reduction of $2 per week, and the price paid at the shop- ing places would be 10 per cent less. As all the manufacturers are bound to follow the action of the firm, the men are determined to strike. The men that competent union finishers at work for $10 per week or not at all, looks as if, in spite of their agreement, they will strike. The men are deter- mined by the district board and that the most of the war labor known in the history of labor agitation has been entered.

A Shocking Accident.
[By telegraph to the Dispatch.]
BOSTON, N. Y., August 22.—A Waverly dispatch to the Republican reports a shocking accident at Athens, Pa., during a recent fair. A cannon, which had been fired at that place, a cannon was prematurely discharged, instantly killing William Bosson, aged twenty years, fatally injuring Mrs. N. Castanore, aged twenty years, tearing off the thumb of Gabriel J. Lockwood. The last named was hurled into the air. All were Waverly. Castanore was horribly mangled. Bosson and Castanore are members of Waverly Camp, No. 1,000, of the Grand Army of the Republic, of W. C. Hull Post, G. A. R., of Waverly. The accident caused great consternation in the camp.

Aldrich, of New York; Treasurer, Francis Rawle, of Philadelphia; Executive Committee, The President, Secretary, Treasurer, Alfred Hitchcock, of New York; and Messrs. Aldrich, Rawle, of Michigan, and Henry Heminway, of Massachusetts. A vice-president for the year 1893 was elected, and counsel for each state were also elected.

The Texas Alliance.
BOSTON, N. Y., August 22.—At the U.S. OILS. August 23.—The Piedmont has (T.S.) special says: There were several resolutions adopted by the State Legislature at Raleigh, N.C., yesterday, including the Sub-Treasury bill, one endorsing State papers favoring the Hogy faction and another endorsing the Wilmington, opposing the penitentiaries of the State to employ convicts inside the walls at cotton ginning manufacture, and one instructing the railroad companies to themselves of all eligible members.

Short in His Accounts.
(By telegraph to the Dispatch.)

GREENVILLE, TENN., August 23.—Frank M. Allen, teller of the Capital City Bank, has been short $10,000 of the amount of $100,000 or $15,000. Allen has been speculating in Rock Island stock with the bank's money, and the fall in the stock last week has cost him $10,000. He has been making a confession of his shortage to W. A. Benson, president of the bank.

Salvador's Dispute.
(By telegraph to the Dispatch.)

SAN SALVADOR, August 23.—The Liberalist Government of August 22—President Zetia—has been notified by the United States, through the mediation of the Diplomatic Agent, that the United States Government is, and is willing to abide by terms conducive to peace, always providing that the Government of Guatemala will respect the rights of the United States.

If this condition is not accepted by the Government of Guatemala a continuance of the war is inevitable.

COLTHERS

To just want to say that WE are ready—and YOU are—with the Medium-weight Suits—ONES. We've had the trade standing out there—watching for what we'd bring out this season. Ever since we started to supplying courses there's been a straining among them. We walk in the most of ready-made clothiers dare not follow. The custom-tailor's resources are ours. The fabric—Clays for instance—are right around the block and call—and we use them.

We're admitted to control the finest designing talent in the country, and last season OUR prestige "boosted" ready-made clothing higher than public favor than it ever went before. We'll better this—because we've had a year's hard work, and have the beacon-lights of experience to warn us off the shoals of error.

The season is just dawning. There is enough time to make the broken to measure the
